Change of Directors

Vale International Group Ltd., incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("BVI") and formed to undertake an acquisition of a target company or business in the technology sector in Europe and/or Asia is pleased to announce that Mr Robin Rice has joined the board of Directors.

Robin has worked for Ernst & Young (EY) leading its transaction practice in Jeddah (Saudi Arabia) for many years, as well as EY Australia. During his tenure at EY, Robin was involved in many consultancy/advisory projects providing technical guidance to clients in the Middle East and Australia. He was also one of EY's leading global trainers where he delivered training to EY staff worldwide. He now runs his own training and advisory company for global clients including the UN, banks and financial companies.

Robin currently holds no other Directorships.
